The Bunsen Society invites all women to the second Women's Networking Lunch at the Bunsentagung 2015.

Women are all about relationships! Join us for a lunch and get to know other successful women in our scientific community. This unique networking opportunity takes place on Friday (15 May 2015, 12:30h) at the Bunsentagung 2015 for the second time. The Women's Networking Lunch enables female scientists, talented and eager students as well as company representatives to interact in a relaxed environment. This lunch allows attendees to expand their professional network, to collaborate with peers, to share their personal and business experiences and to exchange opinions.

We truly look forward to welcoming you at the Women's Networking Lunch and ask you to register for it jointly with your conference registration.

We'd love to get to know you!

Yvonne Joseph & Melanie Schnell

18:00 – 22:00 Poster Session & Poster Dinner (Foyer Audimax)

The Poster Session allows for in-depth exchange of latest research achievements and developments in an informal atmosphere while enjoying food and drinks with friends and colleagues.
