Rights of the Persons concerned

In order to do justice to the transparency and modalities regulated in Art. 12 of the EU GDPR, the person responsible for the matter must subsequently inform the persons concerned about the rights of the person.

a) Right to information (Article 15)
The data subject has the right to ask the person responsible for confirmation of the processing of the personal data in question. The person responsible will provide a copy of the personal data that is the subject of the processing. For all further copies requested by the data subject, the person responsible may request a reasonable fee based on the administrative costs involved.

b) Correction (Article 16)
The data subject has the right to demand correction or completion of personal data concerning them.

c) Cancellation (Article 17) - "Right to be forgotten"
See point 7: Deadlines for data deletion

d) Right to object (Article 21)
If the data subject objects to the processing of personal data for any reason, the controller may no longer process such data unless he/she can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing that outweigh the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject, or the processing serves the assertion, exercise or defense of legal claims.

e) Right to complain to a supervisory authority
Individuals affected have the right to lodge a complaint with the relevant competent supervisory authority.

f) Consequences of non-provision of personal data
Failure to provide or object the processing of personal data of the data subject would result in a withdrawal from the DBG. After expiration of the deletion period or other legal obligations to store all data, personal data will be deleted.
